About the Pueblo VITA Program

Services are provided by IRS-trained volunteers who work with clients to identify tax credits, such as the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) and Child Tax Credit (CTC) that often go unclaimed, while helping them avoid the added cost of paid preparers and predatory lending to advance returns. The Pueblo VITA Program is partially funded by the City of Pueblo and administrated by United Way of Pueblo County. Detailed program information can be found at www.pueblounitedway.org/vita.
